Risa Brown moved to Ichikawa last week with her family, so her only friend was her cute dog, Taro. She enjoyed playing with Taro every day but wanted to make new friends.

On Wednesday, Risa was walking along the river with Taro and found a small bag. When she looked in the bag, there were some dog toys and a card in it. A name was written on the card: Suzuki Sayaka.

Risa thought, "Who is this? A girl? A lady? Anyway, she must be worried." Risa went to the police and left everything with them.

Two days later, when Risa was walking in the park with Taro, he suddenly ran to another dog. "Hey, slow down, Taro. Stop it," said Risa, but he didn't stop. At first, Risa was worried he was going to fight the other dog, but they started to play together! Then, Risa heard a voice: "Hey, what are you doing, Pochi?" Risa turned and saw a girl. "Pochi, come here," said the girl. Taro and Pochi didn't stop playing. Risa and the girl smiled at each other.

"Is that your dog? Pochi is so cute," said Risa.

"Thanks. Your dog is lovely, too. What is his name?" the girl asked.

"He is Taro and I'm Risa. Risa Brown. Nice to meet you."

"I'm Suzuki Sayaka. Nice to meet you, too."
