Luckily, the ball went into the basketball hoop. Her teacher saw it and said, "Wow, you are like a *professional basketball player." Hiromi was surprised but happy.

That night, she said to her father, "I played basketball in P.E. today and made a lucky shot, but my teacher said it was good."

Her father said, "Do you want to go and watch a professional basketball game with me next Saturday?"

"Yeah. Let's go!"

On Saturday, Hiromi and her father went to buy their tickets. They waited in a long line for two hours, but Hiromi only felt more and more excited. During the game, the players on the court were wonderful. They played very fast. They jumped so high. The game was great. It changed her mind about basketball.

After the game, Hiromi and her father went to a restaurant, and over dinner she said, "I want to join the basketball club when I go to junior high school."
