First Grade Students Made Houtou in Yamanashi

The First Grade students travelled by bus to OshinoHakkai. It was a clear, sunny day and Mount Fuji was really beautiful. The students learned how to make the noodles for a traditional dish called Houtou. They were then able to eat their own noodles. The dish was very healthy and delicious. After lunch, the students walked around the ponds of OshinoHakkai. What a pleasant day it was!

Second Grade Students Spent a Day in Kasama, Ibaraki

The girls travelled to Kasama in Ibaraki Prefecture to learn how to make pottery. For most students, this was the first time to try this traditional art. It was fun to try something new. At noon, the girls ate their lunch in the park. The students were talking and laughing as they relaxed in the sunshine. It was a fantastic day!

It was nice to make something artistic.

How tasty lunch was !

The girls were happy to be outside!

Third Grade Students Enjoyed a Day at Kabukiza

First, the students were given an explanation of kabuki. For many students, understanding kabuki the first time is difficult, so the explanation was very helpful. The students enjoyed the beautiful, costumes, music, and drama!
