It was Christmas Day. In the morning, Katie woke up and found that the world was white.

“Snow!” she shouted in a happy tone. “Snow for Christmas!”

She ran outside and danced in the snow.

Then, she went back inside the house and ran to her brother Eddie’s room. She said, “Wake up! It’s snowing!” in a loud voice. Eddie was sleepy and wanted to sleep more, but he finally woke up.

Katie came outside the house again, and Eddie followed her. They made a big round snowball and a small one. They put them together and made a very big snowman.

“Hello,” the snowman said. “It’s Christmas. Do you want a present?”

“Yes, please!” they said.

The snowman moved his arms. Then, it started snowing much more. It was very beautiful.

“We’ll give you a present, too,” said Katie. They gave the snowman a carrot for a nose, a scarf for his neck, and a hat for his head.

“Happy Christmas!” they said.

The next morning, it stopped snowing, and the sun came out. It was getting warmer and warmer. “Build me again next year! Goodbye,” the snowman wrote in a letter and put it in front of Katie’s house.

When Katie looked out of the window, there was no snow anymore. Now, Katie is a little sad, but she is looking forward to making a snowman again next year.
